Second Foundation announces acquisition of IBI Group to support the continued growth of Microsoft® Dynamics™ GP and CRM practice

KITCHENER, ONTARIO, CANADA – April 25, 2008 – Second Foundation announces the acquisition of Integrated Business Intelligence Group in Hamilton, ON. This acquisition continues to build upon Second Foundation's recent growth, adds valuable resources to the team, and opens up new market opportunities for their Microsoft® Dynamics™ GP and CRM practice.

"To help sustain our recent growth, we are on the constant look out for partnership opportunities," states David Popowich, President of Second Foundation. "The merger of Second Foundation and IBI truly represents a solution where the sum of our parts is greater than the whole. The experience, spirit and expertise that Barry, Garnet and their team brings to Second Foundation is a perfect fit."

The IBI brand will continue to focus on the small and medium business market, providing solutions tailored around the Microsoft® Dynamics™ GP and CRM product lines. "As a Microsoft Small Business Specialist, we understand the needs of this entrepreneurial market space," says Barry Dowd, co-founder of IBI Corp. "As fellow entrepreneurs, we understand the demands of the market and provide the best value solutions that we tailor to suit our clients' needs."

"We've built a very successful and widely recognized company with IBI Corp," says Garnet Lasby, co-founder of Integrated Business Intelligence. "We won Partner of the Year for Small Business Specialist at the 2007 Microsoft Worldwide Partner Program Awards and were a finalist in Microsoft's 2007 Impact Awards. We see this merger as a great way to provide even better service and support to our business community."

Second Foundation and IBI will continue to provide service from both their Kitchener and Hamilton locations. They will focus on Financial Accounting, ERP and CRM solutions: IBI Group for the small and medium business segment and Second Foundation for the mid-market.
