Integrated Business Intelligence Corporation Counted Among Top Finalists for the 2007 Microsoft Partner of the Year Award in Small Business Specialist

Hamilton, ON — June 18, 2007 — Today, Integrated Business Intelligence Corp. announced it has been selected as a finalist for Microsoft Corp.'s Partner of the Year Award in Small Business Specialist. Winners for the 2007 Microsoft Partner Program Awards, which recognize top Microsoft Partners delivering market-leading, Microsoft-based solutions, will be announced July 11 in Denver, Colorado at the Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference.

"We are thrilled to be a finalist for the worldwide Small Business Specialist Partner of the year award. Our focus on Microsoft Dynamics CRM, ERP, and Retail Management solutions tailored to the needs of small business has allowed us leverage Microsoft's market-leading technologies into solutions for our clients that are cost-effective to implement and easy to manage." says Garnet Lasby, CEO of Integrated Business Intelligence Corp. According to company president Barry Dowd: "Our focus on making investments in technology a competitive advantage for our smaller entrepreneurial clients sets us apart from most traditional partners."

Awards will be presented in a number of categories, with winners chosen from a pool of more than 1,800 entrants worldwide. The Small Business Specialist Partner of the Year Award honors those partners who are using Microsoft technology to deploy innovative small business solutions. The winning partner will have demonstrated innovation in deploying a small business Microsoft-based solution (fewer than 50 employees or fewer than 25 PCs). The winning solution will have utilized key Microsoft products in the small business solutions stack including Microsoft Windows Small Business Server
